

Mental Health Awareness in Tech Workplace

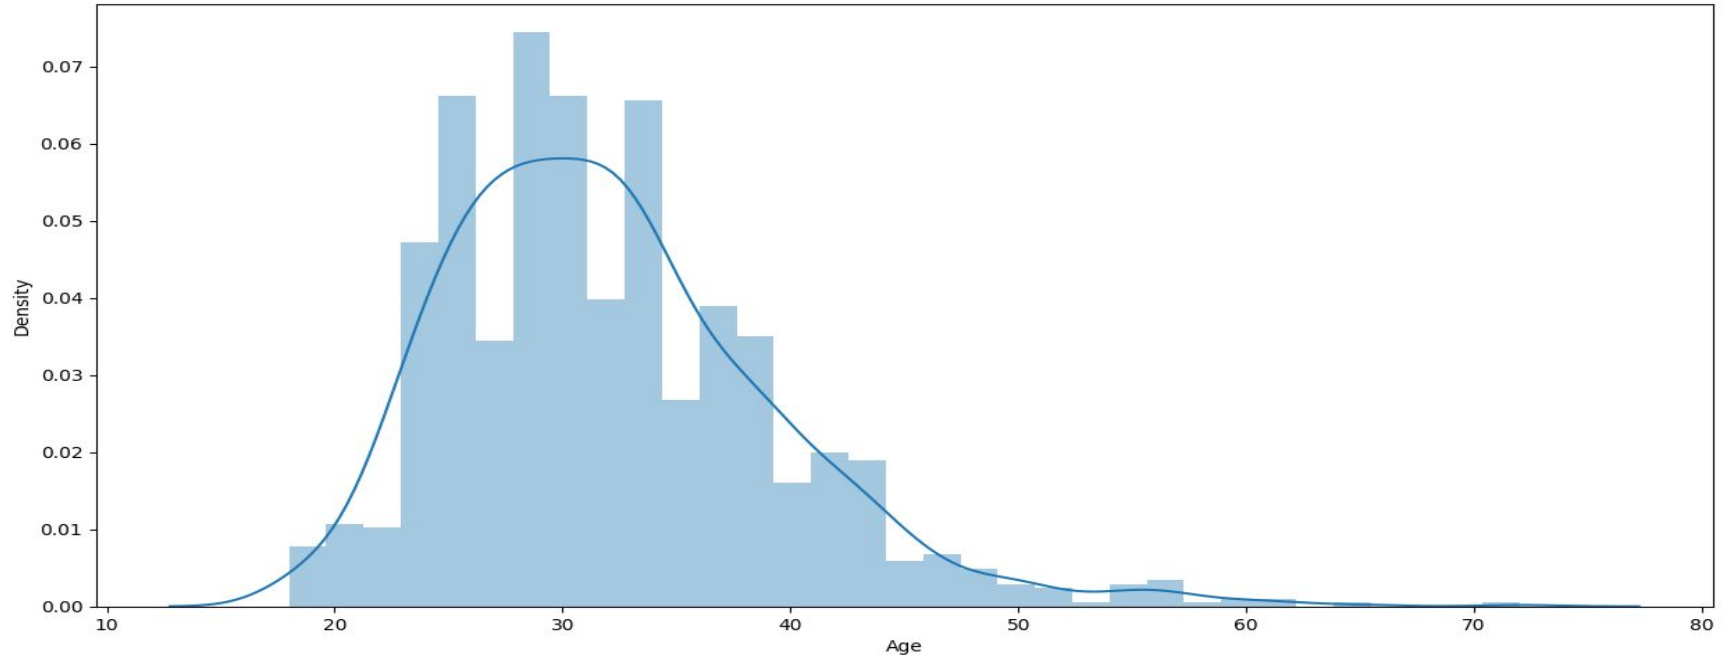

How willingness for the treatment increases with age

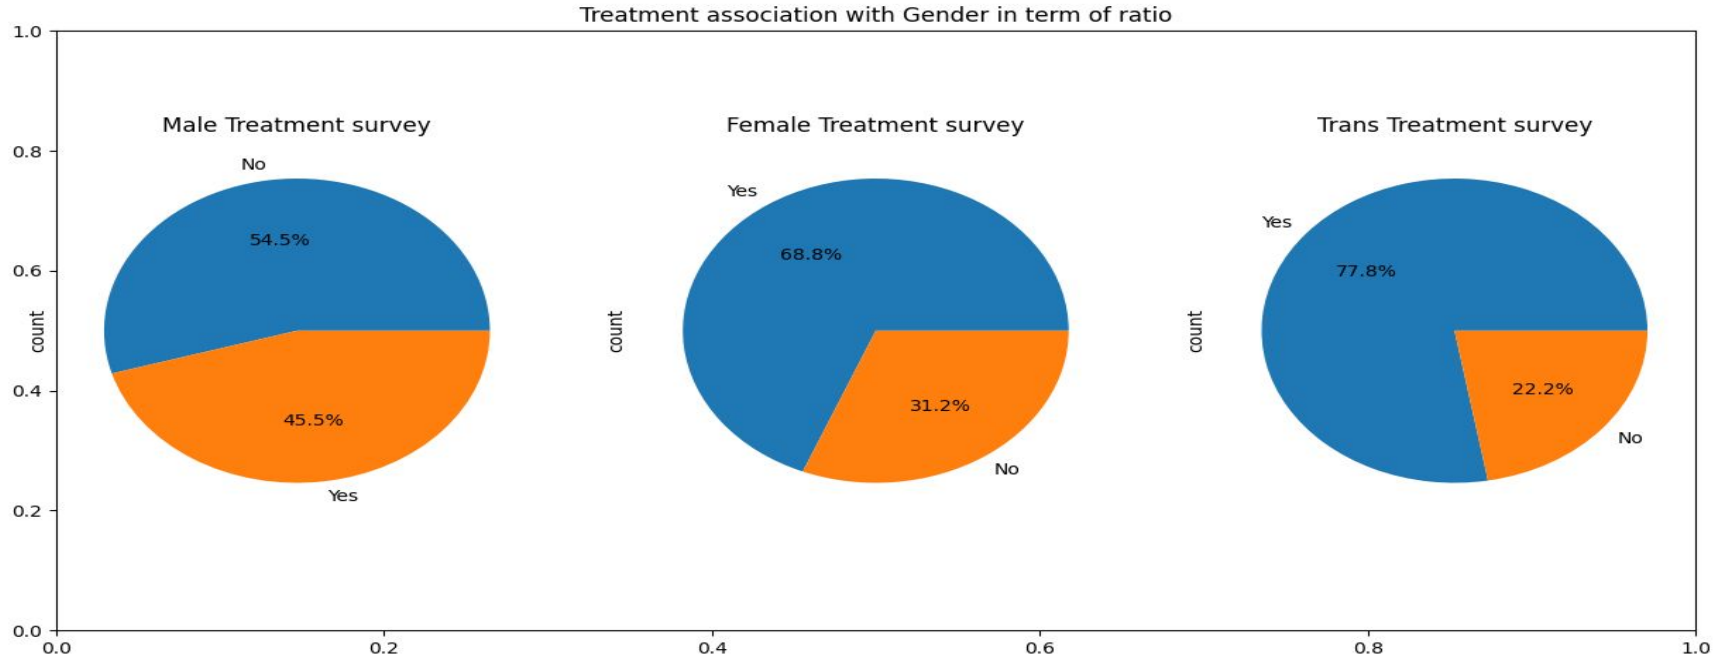

People between age 20-50 are more willing to take treatment than people age above 50

Age Distribution of people who contributed in survey

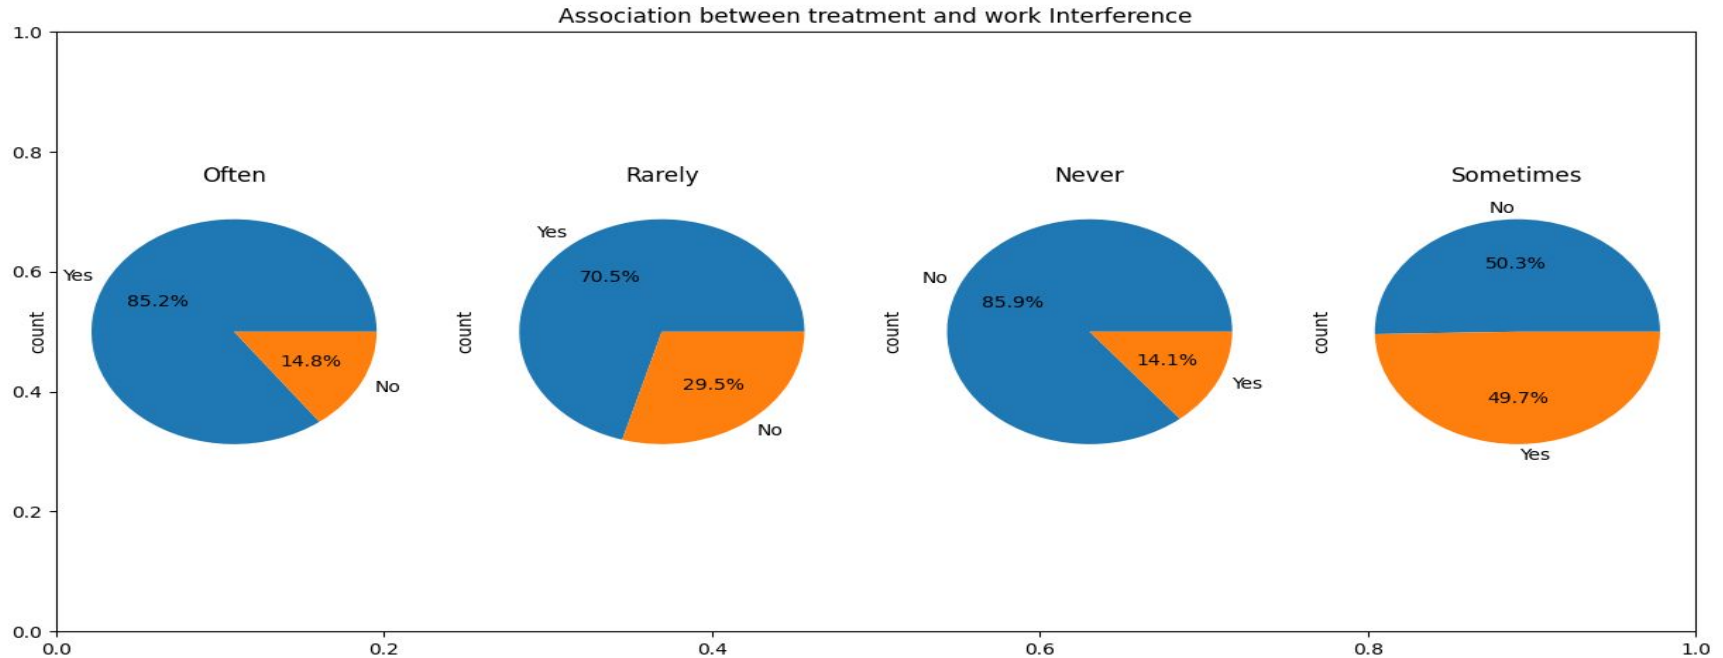

People between age 20-50 are more contributed in survey

Association between Treatment and Gender

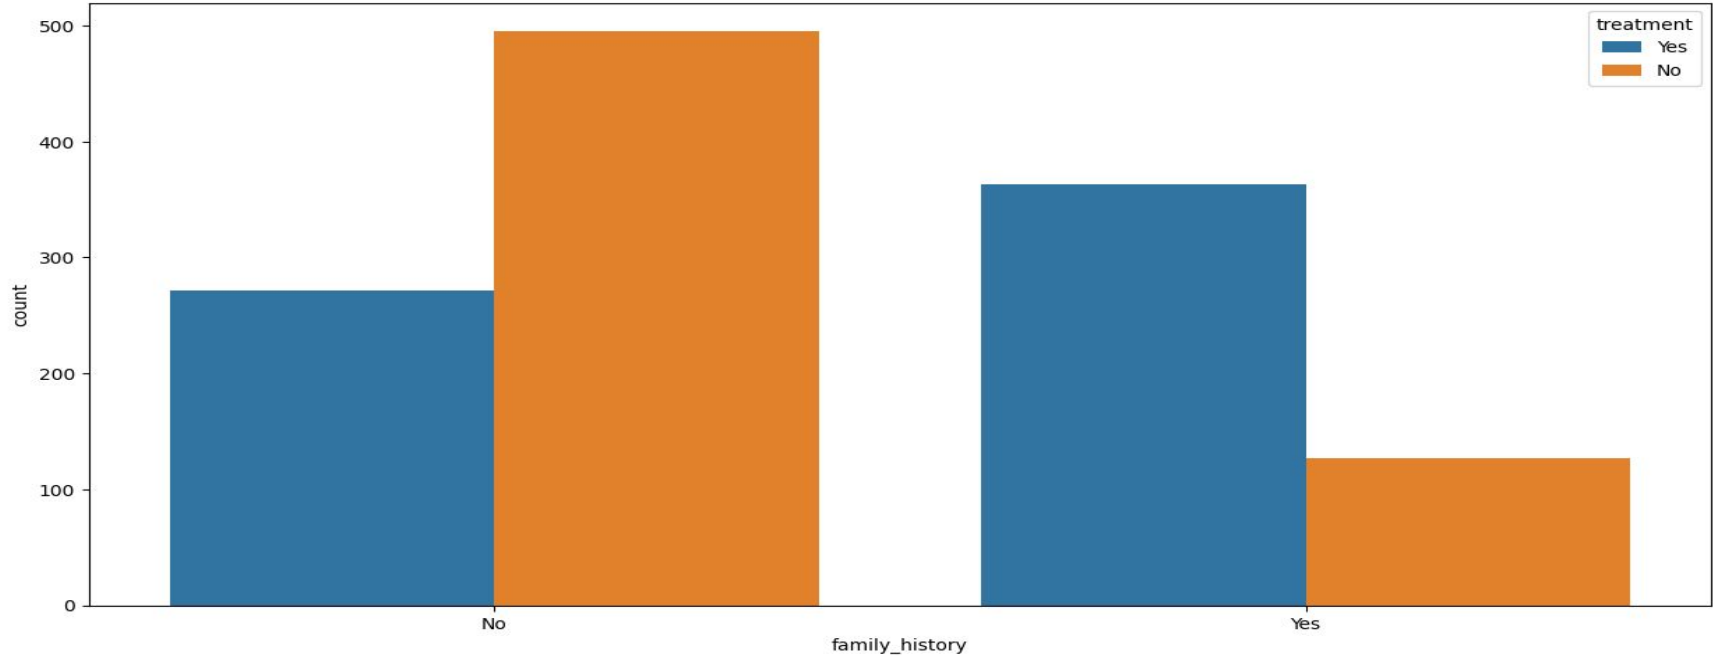

Female and T gender are more willing to take treatment than Male

How the Work Interference Impacting employees treatment

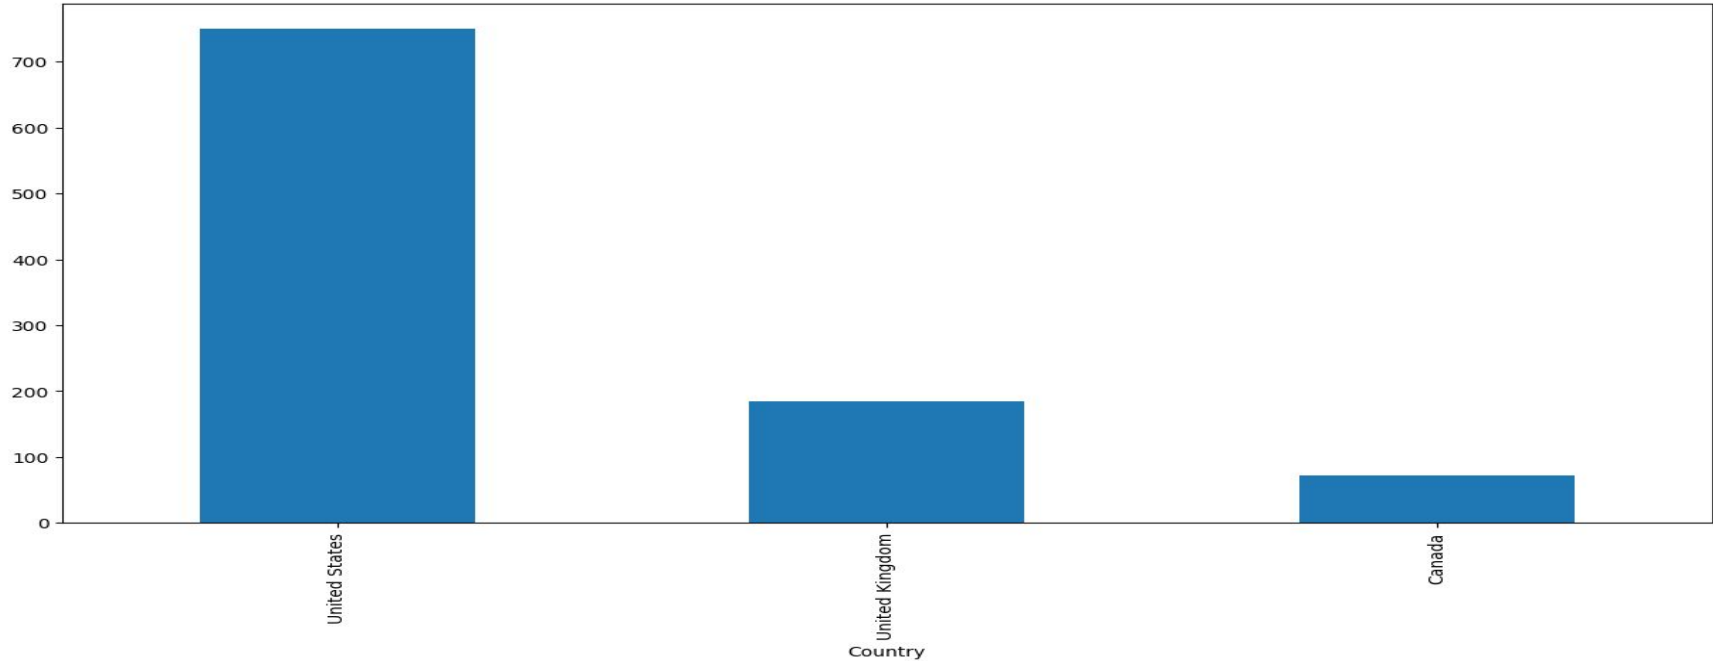

When Work interference is higher then people are more willing to take treatment

How the family history related to people seeks treatment

If there is family history in employee's home, then those employees are more willing to take treatment

Top 3 countries more contributed in Survey

People from United states, United Kindom and Canada are more contributed in survey